

GENERIC OUTLINE

You can organize by making notes on this page

- 1- The intense statement, question or quotation to draw the reader in (a single sentence)
- 2- How bad was it. (The first 100 words) draws the reader into your story.
- 3- Problem worsens. More details that help the reader identify and get him mentally involved.
- 4- How it came about. Flash back to show how this problem or condition began.
- 5- Turning to God. How you came to seek God's help, and turned to Him.
- 6- His intervention. This is where your readers rejoice with you, feel your relief.
- 7- Refer to the beginning. Provide a statement tying it together. Should relate to your title.
- 8- Statement of change, possibly with above and review God's hand in the events.
- 9- Importance to reader. What this should mean to or help the reader. What it teaches.
- 10- Invitation (refer again to the beginning and 7)
